

Finals Disposal of Spent Fuel and HLW

In Germany final disposal of radioactive materials has always been the responsibility of the State. For more informations on the site selection process for a repository for heat-generating waste please check here.