

Reliable Transports

The partners commissioned by GNS for the retrieval to Germany have many years of experience in the transport and handling of reprocessing waste and other radioactive materials. They employ experienced personnel as well as proven technologies and equipment. Retrieval transports from the reprocessing plants in La Hague/France and Sellafield/UK have been well practised for many years and have always been carried out reliably and safely.